Powerlaw Corp. (Nasdaq: PWRL) Dividend Reinvestment Plan

How to Opt Out of Dividend Reinvestment

The PWRL Dividend Reinvestment Plan is an opt-out plan, which means your dividends are automatically reinvested in purchasing additional shares unless you elect to receive them in cash. To discontinue dividend reinvestment and receive future dividends in cash, shareholders may update their online account or submit a signed written request.

Any update or signed written request to change your enrollment status under the plan must be made or submitted at least five business days prior to any dividend/distribution record date; otherwise, such update or request to change your enrollment status will not be effective until the next declared dividend or other distribution.

Option 1: Update Your Online Account
Log in to your Continental Stock Transfer Online Account (https://lsp.continentalstock.com/hlogin)

Once logged in, follow these steps:

4. Select your preferred payment method:
    - Check: To have your dividend check mailed to the address on file.
    - Direct Deposit: To have your dividends deposited directly into your bank account.
5. Click Next.
